A Look Ahead...

Well 2010 has finally come to a close and a new year is just beginning. We have some big plans in the Marketing and Public Relations Department for 2011. As most of you know we have completed the commercial for The Peachtree Inn and we will be showing it in February during a big premier evening. Everyone is welcome to join us and the date will be listed in the next newsletter as well as which stations it will be running on. We will be marketing a little bit different this year as we now are able to advertise on television as opposed to the newspapers, reaching a bigger audience with the message of who we are and what we do, here at The Orchards at Foxcrest.

The Meet Our Heroes and Harvest Festival this year will be planned early so everyone can save the date. Any ideas that you may have are welcomed and wanted in the Marketing Department. We are going to be using the American Bombshells this year instead of the USO. Ali from the USO has started her own Patriotic Troupe so if they are up for it we would like to invite them this year. I am sure they will be amazing.

Anyone wanting to nominate a veteran to be honored please see or call me and we will put them on the list for nomination.

We look forward to another exciting and productive year here at The Orchards at Foxcrest.

Director of Marketing and Public Relations

We would like to extend a warm welcome to our new residents here at the Stone Pear Pavilion. Please help us in welcoming Betty Finley and Mary Green, both of East Liverpool, Ohio, Babette Fineman and Sarah Scarbro, both from the Peachtree Inn, Janice Wright of New Cumberland, and Marlene Stewart, James O’Connell, and Keith Roupe, from Chester. Let’s all help them feel at home. Welcome Babette, Betty, Janice, Marlene, Mary, Sarah, James, and Keith!

Congratulations!

Congratulations to JoAnne Work! JoAnne was the winner of the Old Fashioned Santa Raffle last month.

In the Spirit of Giving

Nowhere was the season of giving more apparent than at the Stone Pear Pavilion last month. Caring friends throughout our tri-state community from local churches, groups, organizations, and schools as well as devoted families and our own compassionate staff brought holiday joy to our residents’ hearts. Expressions of love and remembrance came to our residents in many forms, from those of song to those wrapped in ribbons, and countless ways in between. Thank you to all who gave so generously to brighten the season at the Stoned Pear Pavilion and may you enjoy a New Year filled with peace, prosperity, and good will.

Welcome Residents!

We would like to welcome two new residents to the Pepperberry Suites. During December Patricia DiMarzio came from her home in the Aliquippa, Pennsylvania area. Also, William Thornberry came after a brief stay at the Peachtree Inn. He resided in the East Liverpool area prior to that. Please help to welcome both of them and to help them feel a part of our Pepperberry Suites family.

Talking with Tracy

The Pepperberry Suites Family Christmas Dinner was held on Friday, December 10, 2010. The residents and their families enjoyed a delicious buffet dinner prepared by Chef Todd and the kitchen staff. This years dinner was a great success with the largest number ever in attendance. A Christmas centerpiece was given as a door prize and it was won by Jerry Smith, Pat Taylor's son-in-law. It was very nice this year how the families mingled with each other and many sang along with Edison's guitar playing. Adelaide's family played a game of dominoes. Playing games at the table after dinner was something they said they always enjoyed doing in the past. It was nice to see everyone having such a good time.

Resident Christmas Party Held

On Monday, December 20th Santa made an early visit to the Pepperberry Suites. He first greeted the residents then he talked to them about memories of Christmases past. Several shared stories of when they were young or when their children were small. Santa then led the singing of Christmas Carols chosen by the residents. He also read some short stories about Christmas before passing out a gift to each one. Most of the residents sat on Santa's lap and he asked what they would like for Christmas this year. Refreshments were then served and everyone had a wonderful time.

Pictured at Left: Residents enjoy a visit from the big guy himself, Santa Claus. Santa flew in from the North Pole and made a stop at each and every building on The Orchards at Foxcrest campus including The Pepperberry Suites. Santa put on a Christmas show for everyone in attendance and wrapped his stay up by giving gifts to every resident on the "Nice" list!

Linda's Corner

Happy Birthday

1/13—Harriett Moon

1/29—Alvin Fineman

From all the Management and Staff of The Peachtree Inn, we would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy New Year!!

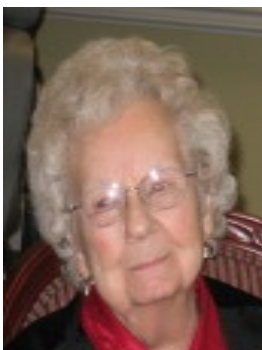

Here is a familiar figure you will see at The Peachtree Inn. We have grown to love all of our 4-legged figures here. Eddie DeBee is the handsome young man and his buddy is called Precious.

To Start A New Year

“A new year is unfolding—like a blossom with petals curled tightly concealing the beauty within.

Lord, let this year be filled with the things that are truly good—with the comfort of warmth in our relationships, with the strength to help those who need our help and the humility and openness to accept help from others.

As we make our resolutions for the year ahead, let us go forward with great hope that all things can be possible—with Your help and guidance.”

All the residents of The Peachtree Inn were hosted by a Christmas Extravaganza on December 20th. They arrived in the dining room at 5:00 to be served a wonderful meal. After dinner the residents were entertained by Harriett Moon, at the Piano and Eddie DeBee singing Christmas carols. The halls of the Peachtree were echoing with the sound of singing by all the residents who joined in with the festivities. After singing they were entertained by a Barbershop quartet Called “All for one.” The smiles on their faces told it all.

Chester's Hometown Christmas

Chester held their annual Hometown Christmas parade on December 4th and the Foxcrest bus was all decked out with decorations made by The Tree House children. The theme for this year's parade was "Santa is coming to Hometown Christmas."

The children and teachers decorated the bus with a Christmas tree, Santa's sack of toys and presents that Santa had left under the tree. We aren't sure who won the float contest, but the Foxcrest bus was #1 to us!

At right: the Foxcrest bus is ready for Christmas with its very own Christmas tree, presents and Santa's sack of toys on the top!

Santa Claus is coming...to The Tree House!

Santa Claus visited all of the good little boys and girls at The Tree House on December 16th. He visited each room and listened to all of the requests for toys, even from the babies! He heard a lot of "gaa gaa" and "goo goo," but we are sure that they all got everything that they wanted!

Miss Sara and Miss Stacy's Pre-K class baked cookies for Santa to eat on his trip back to the North Pole. They didn't want him to go hungry on such a long trip! Santa also read the children "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and they sang Christmas songs together. Santa also presented each boy and girl with a book for Christmas. It was a really special visit for everyone!

Pictured: Santa visits with Sam and Zach Jenkins. Sam wants anything Spiderman and Zach wants a "kaldh jcirud khdaf" (at least that's what it sounded like he said)!

Fresh Faces

WELCOME

The Orchards at Foxcrest welcomed a number of fresh faces to the Fox family last month. The Stone Pear Pavilion greeted a new team member in the Stone Pear Pavilion Dietary Department, Rhonda Allgood, a Cook and Dietary Aide from Wellsville, Ohio. The Housekeeping department also welcomed a new employee, Lorraine Cataldo, a Housekeeper from East Liverpool, Ohio. The Peppercorn Suites welcomed a new Care Aide, Meranda Lockhart from Newell, West Virginia. If you see any of these fresh faces roaming around The Orchards campus, please make sure you stop and give them a warm Foxcrest welcome!
